

“RISTORANTE LA CAPLANIA”

The restaurant “the Caplania” takes its name from the ancient farm Cappellania to which once these earths belonged.

The Restaurant rises in the heart of the hills of San Colombano, in a position privileged from which enjoys an unique and suggestive sight of the surrounding territory, beginning from the vineyards that serve as corollary to the estate of 20.000 square meters in which the restaurant is dipped in turn.

In this splendid natural scenography it is possible to spend a day of relax without estranging too much from the city enjoying of the peace and of the calm of the hill.

The restaurant is able to answer to the most varied demands of dining fine, from the supper for two to light of candle in the suggestive Room of the Fireplace or in the Red Room up to the ceremony of wedding for more than 200 people in the bright Room Porch, leaned out on the splendid hill of San Colombano and protected by ample glass door on three sides.

Besides it enjoys of a splendid dehors in the garden of the restaurant, to the shelter under the ample sails set among in flower beds of thousand colors, where is served the appetizer of Welcome for the Bridegrooms and the islands for the sideboards appetizers.

In the warm and pleasant Room of the Fireplace, in degree to entertain up to 20 people, it is possible to have lunch or to dine in calm and reservation, to the insignia of the most traditional Italian cuisine, daily enriched with imagination and style.

You can directly understand here the sense of the sentence "the table of the pleasure" with which the restaurant identifies its menus.

In the coldest days in the winter you can decide to detain you of the suggestive Room Caplania or Yellow Room, in the heart of the restaurant, in degree to welcome up to 30 people, for small breakfasts of job or for lunches and suppers among friends.

Here you will also find an exposure of the famous Wine cellar of the Wines of the restaurant that sees a notable selection of Italian wines and the local wines coming from the hill of San Colombano.

The restaurant the Caplania is absorbed in a suggestive rich secular park of a luxuriant vegetation where you can also admire ancient oaks and Mediterranean pines. In the park it is possible to take a moment of relax walking to the insignia of the most absolute calm, enjoying, in the beautiful days, of an unique view to the peaks of the Grigna and the Resegone.

In the summer Dehors can find place more than 80 people, for ceremonies, sideboard, lunches or suppers of job, or also only for a supper to two, enjoying of the perfumes and of the colors of an uncontaminated hil.

The Hill of San Colombano is a vast area that raises him among the Lowland Lodigiana and the Low Of Pavia, in an equidistant strategic position from Milan and from Pavia and to no more than ten kilometers from Lodi, connected by the two principal highways.

From the tourist point of view it represents a destination of sure interest, for the sweetness and the peace of hills that allow calm excursions a stonethrow from the city, to the search of the tastes and the perfumes that this territory offers in abundance.

Of this place Francesco Petrarca also speaks, guest of San Colombano in the 1353: ".it is this a vague fertile hill... to the feet of the hill it flows the Lambro, clear river. I don't know place that in a position so little elevated, is possible to see such a vast prospectus of noble earths.”.
